IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH VOL. 60, NO. 1

The Pastor's Page

January is often a quiet month in the life of the Church. We have Epiphany early in the month, but then the Christmas decorations come down and we settle into what the liturgical calendar calls "Ordinary Time." The word ordinary here doesn't mean dull or insignificant. It comes from the word ordinal, referring to weeks that are part of a regular, orderly structure. Still, in most years January feels relatively straightforward: green paraments, familiar readings, and a steady rhythm of Word and prayer.

January 2026, however, is a little different. This year, three feast days happen to fall on Sundays. The Baptism of Our Lord will be observed on Sunday, January 11. The Feast of the Confession of St. Peter follows on Sunday, January 18. The Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul then comes on Sunday, January 25.

And because these feasts replace the normal Sundays after Epiphany, we will celebrate the Lord's Supper on every Sunday in January. Which is certainly not our typical practice of first and third Sundays for Holy Communion. But I would say that's a good thing and a blessing. Because each of these feasts centers us firmly on Christ and His saving work.

The Baptism of Our Lord takes us to the Jordan River, where Jesus steps into the waters not to repent, but to fulfill all righteousness for us. There the Father declares Him to be His Beloved Son, and the Holy Spirit descends upon Him. This feast isn't only about Jesus' baptism. It's also about ours. We're reminded that God has placed His own name upon us, joined us to Christ's death and resurrection, and continues to claim us as His children. To receive the Lord's Supper on this day underscores that baptism isn't just an event in the past. We are now children of heaven, feasting on heavenly food.

On January 18, the Church commemorates the Confession of St. Peter. This feast recalls Peter's bold and simple confession: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." It's a celebration not of Peter's strength, but of the Word revealed to him by the Father. In a world full of competing voices and shifting loyalties, the Church gathers to confess again who Jesus truly is. At the altar, that confession is not merely spoken with our lips. It is received on our lips. The same Christ whom Peter confessed gives His true body and blood to us for the forgiveness of sins.

The month concludes with the celebration of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25. Paul's dramatic encounter with the risen Christ on the road to Damascus reminds us that the Church doesn't grow by human effort or persuasion, but by the sheer mercy of God. The persecutor is made an apostle. The enemy of God's Kingdom is made an ambassador of Christ's reconciling work. At the Lord's Table, we see that same mercy at work for us. We come not because we are worthy, but because Christ calls sinners to Himself and feeds them with His own life.

Taken together, these three feasts make January a month of remarkable theological richness. They also invite us to reflect on the value of receiving the Lord's Supper often. The Sacrament isn't a reward for the spiritually strong, nor is it an occasional spiritual "boost." It is Christ's ongoing gift to His Church, given for the forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. Regular reception forms us in repentance and faith. It teaches us to look outside ourselves for grace. It anchors our Christian life not in our resolve or performance, but in Christ's promise: "Given and shed for you."

To begin a new calendar year gathered weekly around the Lord's Table is a profound blessing. As 2026 unfolds with its joys and uncertainties, we aren't left to face it on our own. Christ meets us again and again, Sunday after Sunday, with His Word and His Supper. January may be called "ordinary," but this year it reminds us that in the Church, even the ordinary weeks are filled with extraordinary grace.

God's richest blessings to you in 2026,
Pastor Ketelsen

PRESCHOOL NEWS

December Highlights!

What a joyful and busy season we've had! We are excited to share highlights from our recent chapel lessons, Christmas activities, and a few important dates coming up in January.

Chapel Lessons

During chapel, the children learned about:

- Angels & Shepherds
- Simeon & Anna

We also enjoyed the Christmas story told from different perspectives:

- Innkeeper – Tim D.
- Mary – Mrs. Ketelsen
- Joseph – Pastor K
- Angel – Geannie Shay

Each day, Worley our shepherd took us on a special journey as we searched for Jesus in the manger, helping the children connect more deeply with the true meaning of Christmas.

Christmas Program

Our Christmas program, "Angel, Angel, What Do You See?", was a wonderful success. The children did an amazing job sharing the story through song and performance.

Christmas Party

We loved celebrating with our Christmas party and were so thankful to have parents join us. Thank you, parents, for celebrating with us, and thank you to the children for all the thoughtful gifts!

Classroom Fun

- The Weather Frog continues to help us learn about what the weather is doing each day.
- We enjoyed seasonal activities, including making elves and Santa ornaments.

Upcoming Dates in January

- Friday, January 16 – NO SCHOOL
- Monday, January 19 – NO SCHOOL, Parent-Teacher Meetings

Thank you for being such a wonderful part of our school community. We wish you a joyful Christmas season and look forward to the new year ahead!

KEEPING UP WITH KINDERGARTEN

Our kindergarten classroom has been filled with excitement and joy as we celebrate the Advent season together. We've been enjoying many Christmas stories, sharing favorite books about the meaning of the season, the birth of Jesus. The children especially loved our "Wandering Wisemen" and all the places they ended up. The children made special Christmas ornaments to take home, each one unique and full of care. One favorite celebration was St. Lucia Day, when we learned about light and kindness. We made pancakes to share and created paper candle crowns, which brought many smiles.

It's hard to believe we are already halfway through the year! The children have grown so much in confidence, curiosity, and kindness. Thank you for sharing your children with us and for being part of this joyful season in our classroom.

In His Service,
The Kindergarten Team

STEWARDSHIP/OUTREACH BOARD

Outreach is an ongoing topic for our congregation. There was an article in last month's Thrivent Magazine on the topic for budget for outreach funds as well as for your family expenses, as well as other financial potential donations. One approach they use is the matching donation opportunity. If someone needs to make a sizable donation for financial reasons, they should consult a financial advisor creating a foundation that will help an individual with their 1040s.

The Rose Bowl Parade is held every year on New Year's Day. This year's parade begins at 8:00 A.M. PST (10:00 A.M. CST). By the time you receive this newsletter, the Parade will be in the past. Did you watch the parade and see The Lutheran Hour float to get the answer to last month's trivia question? The correct answer is that the float featured a blimp. Did you find the answer from the hints? Or did you find out by watching for the LH float in the parade?

This month's outreach trivia is local, not international and is about our Nativity Display. #2, #4, and #19 are the hints. The correct answer will be in the February newsletter. Driving by the nativity display at night is very impressive.

Our school and Sunday School programs were a positive Christmas Season success. The Christmas Eve service was well attended, and it was wonderful to see so many members and guests.

Watch in the February newsletter for a wrap-up of donations from the Salvation Army bell-ringing.

November had 4 prayer requests, and this month there have not been any prayer requests.

The suggested donations in the month of January for the NHN Food Pantry is soups and saltine crackers, pasta, pasta sauce, and rice. As always, any non-perishable canned and boxed goods are welcome, as well as cash or C&R gift certificates. Food Pantry envelopes are available in the Narthex. Please make checks to Neighbors Helping Neighbors. Thank you for your generosity.
